

- 1: user sends (code, periodic interval, dependencies)
- 2: webserver prepares a OpenWhisk package which will be executed
- 3: OpenWhisk returns results to the webserver to show them to the user
- 4: OpenWhisk also keeps record of the results in the database, so webserver can retrieve anytime on user's request

